

THE PARISH OF ST WILFRID
H A R R O G A T E

Sunday 25th October 2020

Last after Trinity

The Parish Mass

For use during the Coronavirus Pandemic, whilst mass is also livestreamed.

Please take this leaflet away with you.

Welcome

The Parish Mass during the continuing Coronavirus pandemic is celebrated according to the guidelines set out in the parish Emergence Plan which you can find on the parish website: www.stwilfrid.org. That may change from week to week as Government and Church advice is revised and received.

This may be a mass where parts may be sung by a choir, solo cantor, have an organ accompaniment only, or be a said mass. The readings and intercessions may be led by a lay person, or by the presiding priest.

Communion is administered when possible, in one kind only, without the chalice. You are also asked not to share a sign of peace at that point in the liturgy. You are also asked to take this leaflet away with you at the end of this service. Please though do not share it either during or after the liturgy.

Social Distancing – Social Safety

We ask you please, to help yourself, each other and us by carefully following any instructions regarding social distancing. Please keep to the distance markers on the floor, and for safety, only sit where you are asked to.

Parish Giving

It costs over £4000 a week to carry out our ministry, mission and maintenance. One off cash donations can be made in the box by the entrance. Electronic payments are preferred, and can be made by the door, as you leave.

We can reclaim tax on your donation if you complete a yellow 'Gift Aid' envelope, with your address, date and signature. Thank you!

There is a loop system please turn your hearing devices to "T".

Mobile phones and tablets should be turned to 'Airplane' or silent modes.

Before mass begins, please keep silence, remembering that you have come into the presence of God, whom we worship in this place.

May Almighty God have mercy on us, forgive us our sins and bring us to everlasting life
Amen.

The Gloria

May be sung by a choir or solo cantor

Glory to God in the highest, and peace to his people on earth.

Lord God, heavenly King, almighty God and Father,
we worship you, we give you thanks,
we praise you for your glory.

Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father, Lord God, Lamb of God,
you take away the sin of the world:
have mercy on us;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father:
receive our prayer.

For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

The Collect

Blessed Lord,
who caused all holy Scriptures to be written for our learning:
help us so to hear them,
to read, mark, learn and inwardly digest them that, through patience, and the comfort of your holy word, we may embrace and for ever hold fast the hope of everlasting life, which you have given us in our Saviour Jesus Christ,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.
Amen.

The First Reading

Leviticus 19:1-2, 15-18

A reading from the book of Leviticus

The Lord spoke to Moses, saying:
Speak to all the congregation of the people of Israel and say to them: You shall be holy, for I the Lord your God am holy.
You shall not render an unjust judgement; you shall not be partial to the poor or defer to the great: with justice you shall judge your neighbour. You shall not go around as a slanderer among your people, and you shall not profit by the blood of your neighbour: I am the Lord.
You shall not hate in your heart anyone of your kin; you shall reprove your neighbour, or you will incur guilt yourself. You shall not take vengeance or bear a grudge against any of your people, but you shall love your neighbour as yourself: I am the Lord.

This is the word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

The Psalm

Psalm 1

R./ I love you, O Lord, my strength.

Who is God except the Lord?
And who is a rock besides our God?—
the God who girded me with strength, and made my way safe.

R./

The Lord lives! Blessed be my rock, and exalted be the God of my salvation,
the God who gave me vengeance and subdued peoples under me;

R./

You exalted me above my adversaries;
you delivered me from the violent.
For this I will extol you, O Lord, among the nations, and sing praises to your name.

R./

The Second Reading

1 Thessalonians 2:1-8

A reading from the first letter to the Thessalonians

You yourselves know, brothers and sisters, that our coming to you was not in vain, but though we had already suffered and been shamefully maltreated at Philippi, as you know, we had courage in our God to declare to you the gospel of God in spite of great opposition. For our appeal does not spring from deceit or impure motives or trickery, but just as we have been approved by God to be entrusted with the message of the gospel, even so we speak, not to please mortals, but to please God who tests our hearts. As you know and as God is our witness, we never came with words of flattery or with a pretext for greed; nor did we seek praise from mortals, whether from you or from others, though we might have made demands as apostles of Christ. But we were gentle among you, like a nurse tenderly caring for her own children. So deeply do we care for you that we are determined to share with you not only the gospel of God but also our own selves, because you have become very dear to us.

This is the word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

The Gospel

Matthew 22:34-46

The Lord be with you
and also with you.

✠ Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew Glory to you, O Lord.

When the Pharisees heard that Jesus had silenced the Sadducees, they gathered together, and one of them, a lawyer, asked him a question to test him. ‘Teacher, which commandment in the law is the greatest?’ He said to him, ‘“You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind.” This is the greatest and first commandment. And a second is like it: “You shall love your neighbour as yourself.” On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets.’

Now while the Pharisees were gathered together, Jesus asked them this question: ‘What do you think of the Messiah? Whose son is he?’ They said to him, ‘The son of David.’ He said to them, ‘How is it then that David by the Spirit calls him Lord, saying, “The Lord said to my Lord, ‘Sit at my right hand, until I put your enemies under your feet’ ”?’

If David thus calls him Lord, how can he be his son?’ No one was able to give him an answer, nor from that day did anyone dare to ask him any more questions.

This is the Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, O Christ.

The Profession of faith

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.
We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made,
of one being with the Father;
through him all things were made.

*For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven, he became incarnate from the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary and was made man.*

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is worshipped and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.

We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.

We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Prayers of Intercession

Stand

After each section:

Lord in your mercy
Hear our prayer

After the prayers for those who have died:

✠ Rest eternal grant to them O Lord.
And let light perpetual shine upon them.

May they rest in peace.
And rise in glory.

We ask Mary the Mother of Jesus to pray to the Father for us as we say:

Hail Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee.
Blessed art thou among women and blessed is the fruit of thy womb, Jesus.
Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death. Amen.

The Liturgy of the Sacrament

The Peace

The peace of the Lord be always with you.
And also with you.

The Preparation of the Table

Pray, my brothers and sisters in Christ, that this our sacrifice, which is both yours and mine may be acceptable to God the almighty Father.
May the Lord accept the sacrifice at your hands for the praise and glory of his name, for our good, and the good of all his Church.

The Eucharistic Prayer

The Lord be with you.
And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.
We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
It is right to give thanks and praise.

After the preface, the Sanctus and Benedictus may be sung by a choir or solo cantor:

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

The Principal Celebrant continues the Eucharistic Prayer

Great is the mystery of faith:
Christ has died: Christ is risen: Christ will come again.

The Eucharistic Prayer ends with the doxology:

.....for ever and ever.
Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven
hallowed be thy name;
thy kingdom come.
Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us,
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the Kingdom, the power and the glory
for ever and ever. Amen

Agnus Dei

A Choir or solo cantor may sing:

Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world, have mercy on us.
Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world, have mercy on us.
Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world, grant us peace.

✠ Behold the Lamb of God, who takes away the sins of the world.
Blessed are those who are invited to share in the banquet of the Lamb.
Lord, I am not worthy to receive you:
but only say the word and I shall be healed.

For those not receiving Holy Communion either by necessity, choice, or if you are watching at home, you may at the point pray this prayer to make your 'spiritual communion':

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.
I love you above all things,
and I desire to receive you into my soul.
Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart.
I embrace you as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to you.
Never permit me to be separated from you. Amen.

The communion antiphon

Christ loved us and gave himself up for us, as a fragrant offering to God.

The distribution

Please do not move until asked to, by the stewards and follow their instructions.

You MUST follow social distancing as you move around the building.

Face coverings should only be lowered or removed immediately before receiving communion. They should be replaced immediately afterwards.

To receive, sanitise, then stand on the circular yellow floor marker and fully extend your arm towards the priest who will place the Blessed Sacrament in your hand.

If you do not normally receive communion, you should remain in your place.

Prayer after Communion

God of all grace,
your Son Jesus Christ fed the hungry with the bread of his life and the word of his kingdom:
renew your people with your heavenly grace, and in all our weakness sustain us by your true and living bread;
who is alive and reigns, now and for ever.
Amen.

The Notices

Re-admission of Churchwardens to Office

The Archdeacon's Charge

The admission of Churchwardens belongs to the Archdeacon, who in present circumstances has delegated this responsibility to Incumbents.

Let us thank those who have served

Those elected to the office of Churchwarden are invited to stand.

Churchwardens are called to represent the people of God; to work with the leadership of the parish, ordained and lay; to be an example and encouragement to their fellow Christians and the wider community; and to promote unity and peace.

As you come to be admitted to the office of Churchwarden, I ask you to affirm your commitment to this calling, and to seek God's grace and the power of his Holy Spirit to fulfil it.

Will you, as churchwardens, seek to work with the Bishop, your incumbent, the Parochial Church Council, and all those who exercise leadership responsibility in your church, to further the mission of God and his purposes in the world?

Wardens:

I will, the Lord being my helper.

Will you undertake your task as a spiritual and holy calling, and seek in word and action to promote unity and peace?

Wardens:

I will, the Lord being my helper.

Will you care for the fabric and property of the church, as stewards of God, and make it your responsibility to ensure its proper upkeep and repair?

Wardens:

I will, the Lord being my helper.

May God be your helper, and give you grace to serve him with joy, with humility and with strength. And may your ministry as Churchwardens witness to the friendship of Jesus Christ, to the kingdom breaking in amongst us and to the new life in the Spirit, now and always.

All Amen.

The Rector invites the Church Wardens to make their declaration.

I solemnly and sincerely declare before God and his people, that I will faithfully and diligently discharge the duties of the Office of Churchwarden for the parish for which I have been chosen during the period of my appointment.

I now duly and canonically admit you as Church Wardens of this parish in which you serve. As God has called you to this ministry, so he will not fail you.

All stand

Brothers and sisters, will you work with your Churchwardens to strengthen the Body of Christ and promote the mission of the Church in this parish?
With the help of God, we will.

Eternal God, in your faithful and enduring love you call us to share in the ministry of Jesus Christ

In obedience we hear and accept your command, in love we seek to do your will;
with joy we offer ourselves afresh to you and your service.
Amen

The Dismissal

The Lord be with you
And also with you

May Almighty God bless you:
✠ the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit.
Amen.

Go in the peace of Christ
Thanks be to God.

The Angelus

The Angel of the Lord brought tidings to Mary
And she conceived by the Holy Spirit.

Hail Mary full of grace, the Lord is with you;
blessed are you among women and blessed is the fruit of your womb Jesus.
Holy Mary, mother of God, pray for us sinners now and at the hour of our death. Amen.

Behold the handmaid of the Lord
Be it unto me according to your word
Hail Mary....

And the Word was made flesh and dwelt among us
Hail Mary....

Pray for us O holy Mother of God
That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ

Pour your grace into our hearts O Lord, that as we have known the Incarnation of your Son Jesus Christ by the message of an angel; so, by his ✠ cross and passion we may come to share the glory of his resurrection.
 Through the same Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

Parish Notices

Coronavirus Pandemic

You will all be aware that we presently face the possibility of fast moving changes in response to the growth of infections again during the pandemic. Under the '3 tier system' there is no proposal to close parish churches – but local authorities have wide-ranging powers in addition to any designation from Her Majesty's Government.

Should that change, or should a National 'Lock-down' or 'Circuit-breaker' be enacted, please refer to any advisory notices posted on the parish website, social media channels or email newsletters.

We will attempt to keep you up to date and as informed with current advice etc as quickly as we are able to. Please remember we're reacting to both Government legislation, advice and subsequent ecclesiastical advice – all of which can take longer to gauge and implement than a 'top-line' press conference announcement.

Harrogate Homeless Project

The project continues to provide for some of the most vulnerable at this time, and are in great need of the following:-

Microwaveable rice

Tins of chicken in sauce

Tinned sauces (eg sweet and sour)

Tinned meat

Crisps

Cleaning materials

Donations can be brought to Mass or you can drop off donations at church between 9.30am and 1.30pm Tuesdays to Fridays by using the black box which is in the sheltered doorway opposite the office door. You do not need to enter the church or office to drop off your donations.

Parish Office

Appointments continue to be required to see a member of staff Monday to Friday in the parish office. Please contact office@stwilfrid.org or bookings@stwilfrid.org to arrange an appointment.

Sanctuary Lamps

We are hoping to ensure that our seven sanctuary lamps continue to be lit 24/7 and invite members of the congregation to 'sponsor' a lamp possibly in memory of a loved one or in thanks for a particular event. If you have previously donated you are welcome to renew your donation for another year on a first come first served basis. A donation of £225 will cover the cost for a whole year. Those for whom the lamp is lit will be remembered, if the donor so wishes, at the Mass on the first Wednesday of each month. In addition to the Sanctuary Lamps there is an opportunity to sponsor the candles at the Blessed Sacrament, Our Lady of Walsingham and the image of Our Lady at the Duchy door and the candle that burns before the Crucifix. Donations can be made by cheque or cash and could even be gift-aided. Please get in touch with Linda Harrison in the Parish Office.

The Children's Society Collection Boxes

Today is the last day to hand in your collection boxes so that Valerie Arthur can count the money.

Please contact Valerie on 561877 if you have not been able to come return your box. If you would like to become a box-holder please see or ring Valerie.

All Souls Day 2nd November

There will be a Solemn Mass at 6pm on Monday 2nd. Please contact the parish office with names of the departed to be remembered. Names must be with the parish office by Friday 30th October. The office can be contacted on 01423 504629 or by email office@stwilfrid.org. Please do not leave it too late as we need some time to type up the lists.

You should, of course make sure that if you include names that you are present at mass that day to pray for them or are watching the live stream of the service.
